

Style FILE

Our pick of the newest pieces set to have grooms turning heads this season

Relaxed Rustic

- 1 Checker Linen Blend Slim Tailored Trousers in Sage, £110, Reiss
- 2 Velvet Ready Tied Bow Tie in Emerald, £12, John Lewis & Partners
- 3 Burgundy With Black Tip Braces, £12, Topman

BOLD TOUCH

A striking herringbone three-piece suit like this one from Garrison Tailors (pictured above) perfectly mimics the sultry styles of the Peaky Blinders gang. Pair tweed and flannel textures with edgy accessories to complete this 1920s inspired look.

- 1 Arthur Tweed Baker Boy Cap, £65, Garrison Tailors
- 2 Henley Navy Tonal Suede Brogue Shoe, £55, Moss London
- 3 Mount Royal Double Hunter Skeleton Pocket Watch, £95, Farrar & Tanner

MIX IT UP

For traditional grooms seeking something that sets them apart, this gorgeous suit, inspired by 18th century morning dress, ticks all the boxes. A fresh take on men's formal attire, the rich pairing of gold, sage and Houndstooth check makes this one for confident grooms. Black Windsor Herringbone Morning Coat, £690, Houndstooth Trousers, £240, Olive Green Waistcoat, £220 and Gold Peacock Tie, £95, all Favourbrook

3 OF THE BEST

WONDERFUL WAISTCOATS

Wool Blend Stretch Waistcoat in Teal, £45, Next

Navy Grid Waistcoat, £50, Burton Menswear London

Complementary Waistcoat, £50, Joe Browns

WORDS JENNIFER GRIMBLE